

Medico-Legal

CBPS accepts various types of medico –legal referrals. Most commonly, this will be for a company operating as a conduit between a solicitor acting on behalf of an individual and CBPS.

CBPS also accepts referrals directly from solicitors and Social Services on behalf of their clients. CBPS can also act as an expert witness in cases where a psychological or psychiatric opinion is needed, particularly if time is of the essence. Initial assessment-for medical purposes Reports written to expert witness standard for court purposes. Mid – term and final reports Extensive experience in Family and Childcare Proceedings Forensic cases Children Adolescents Adults The elderly
CBPS accepts referrals for medico-legal purposes. The company has an established history and experience in working with companies seeking assessment and treatment for their clients. CBPS affiliates are already in contract with medico-legal companies and insurance organisations and are currently available to take on further mandates.